JUDGMENT AND PROB/
COMM
ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of:

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS

This term consists of 20 years on Count 1, and 5 years on each of Counts 3, 4, and 5, to run concurrently to each other, but consecutively to Count 1.

Upon release from imprisonment the defendant is placed on supervised release for a period of 3 years, on each of Counts 1, 3, 4, and 5, all terms to run concurrently, under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the United States Probation Office and General Order 20-04;
2. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant;
3. The defendant shall submit his or her person, property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, computers [as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1030(e)(1)], cell phones, other electronic communications or data storage devices or media, office, or other areas under the defendant's control, to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer or law enforcement officer. Failure to submit to a search maybe grounds for revocation. The defendant shall warn any other occupants that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. Any search pursuant to this condition will be conducted at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner upon reasonable suspicion that the defendant has violated a condition of his supervision and that the areas to be searched contain evidence of this violation.
4. The defendant shall reside with this brother, Scott Evey, who lives in the San Francisco area in Northern California, for the duration of his supervised release.

USA vs. Edward EveyDocket No.: 2:97-cr-00468-SVW

6. The defendant shall find employment, as readily available given the current conditions of the corona virus pandemic;
7. The defendant shall not from the use, own, or possess firearms, ammunition, or any and all paraphenelia that can be used to create any form of explosive device;

The drug testing condition mandated by statute is suspended based on the Court's determination that the defendant does not show a history of substance abuse.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $400, which is due immediately.

Pursuant to Guideline §SE1.2(a), all fines are waived as the Court finds that the defendant has established that he is unable to pay and is not likely to become able to pay any fine.

Defendant is advised of his rights on appeal.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
